Frances Moffatt : Fashion Exercise Book: Drawing, Doodling and Colouring in (Colouring Books) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fashion Exercise Book: Drawing, Doodling and Colouring in (Colouring Books):

A great book for expressing your creative fashion urges, with doodling, drawing and colouring exercises to fill in. Fashion illustrator and lecturer Frances Moffatt provides suggestions and half-filled pages of drawings and doodles for you to continue, with sections on designing your own fashion blog, creating your own festival fashions, styling street style models from across the globe, adding bling to celebrity pets and selfies and making up your own fashion patterns and prints - lots of exercises to get the creative juices going and bring out the fashionista in you. For too long creative idea books and colouring books were the preserve of children, but grown ups as well as teens can enjoy this book and help unleash their creative ideas. Whether it's a simple colouring-in piece, or a more considered drawing, the suggestions offer something for everyone and encourage them to make the book about their own style. It can be used by anyone, from an artist or designer looking to get the creative juices going to mum at home. A creative book for everyone.

About the Author Frances Moffatt is an illustrator specialising in fashion, beauty and lifestyle and a Visting Lecturer on the Fashion Enterprise degree course at Cleveland College of Art Design. Her work is characterised by dynamic line work, combined with vibrant colour and bold pattern and texture. She graduated with a BA (Hons) in Fashion Marketing, and worked in fashion design, before returning to education to complete an MA in Design (Illustration). Her work was selected for the Association of Illustrators IMAGES 35 annual in the 'New Talent' category, and for the 'Talent' portfolio section of the DAD website.
