I am looking forward to combining working with textiles and jewelry design. I may even try my hand at crocheting jewelry. The projects are very unique and inspiring.I highly recommend this book to other jewelry designers.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Patricia JarmanThe price was right. I did get a couple of ideas to use in my jewelry making.13 of 13 people found the following review helpful. Not disappointedBy C. KotlasUnlike the first reviewer, I was pleased to see macrame and tatting projects included. And the crochet projects are not beyond my novice skills. So if you're looking for new ways to craft with your fabric and thread collections, this book will give you lots of ideas. And even this 60-year-old reviewer can see herself wearing some of these projects!

Sherri Haab knows fiber and fabric. Sherri Haab knows crafting. Is there anything Sherri Haab cant do? Frankly, no. Shes the Superwoman of crafting books! Now she shows her readers how to make stunning gallery-quality jewelry by combining fabric, ribbon, thread, cord, beads, buttons, and other materials with a variety of needlework techniques, all engagingly explained. Each chapter of Felt, Fabric, and Fiber Jewelry spotlights a different technique: embroidery, felting, crochet, tatting, braiding, and macram. Then there are stunning necklaces, pendants, bracelets, and rings to make, all in a fresh, appealing style. Twenty projects mean great looks and great gifts for any occasion. We cant all be Sherri Haab . . . but we can do crafts the way Sherri Haab does them!
