Karen Bremer : Garden Crafts: Terrariums Saucer Gardens, Gardens in Water, Herb Jars, Gifts Bamboo (Can Do Crafts) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Garden Crafts: Terrariums Saucer Gardens, Gardens in Water, Herb Jars, Gifts Bamboo (Can Do Crafts):

O'NeillI paid $10 for this book and had no idea it was what I call, a promotional give away item. It's more like a brochure than a book. This is something I could see a large garden center giving away to customers, like calenders and pens. Not worth buying at all. It has 19 pages of home made crafts, that aren't even that impressive. I think this book is well suited for young people, and when I say young, I mean ages 8-13. A girl or boy of this age would probably enjoy the simple crafts, so in that respect, I guess I'd pay a dollar for it, but if you are an adult looking for inspiration, keep looking, because this book doesn't cut it. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I Really Like this Book By Deborah H. This book has fun indoor gardening tips for non-gardeners like me. The projects are fun and work well for gifts and personal decorating. I enjoy the fact that the materials used are common, easy-to-find and inexpensive. As the other reviewer said, this is a smaller craft book but I think it is worth the money.

Adding a touch of nature to your home decor does not require a green thumb. Easy projects with step-by-step instructions make indoor gardening fun and easy.
