I have more than 50 such books, and that's after weeding out some of my older titles. But Jean LemMon's new book is my all time favorite! With this book, she has captured the heart of what it takes to turn a house into a home. Usually I "connect" with half or maybe one third of the homes featured in a decorating book. Every single room portrayed in this book grabbed me and touched something within. I can't recommend this book highly enough! I sure hope Ms. LemMon is already at work on Volume 2!

Chapters open with conversational essays on the meaning of home by Jean LemMon. Decorating principles to nurture a variety of emotions from serene or secure surroundings to romantic flair. Fabulous photos show LemMons decorating prowess in her own home and how she brings out a special ambiance in each room. Solid decorating advice to effectively use color, pattern, furniture arrangements, and accessories.
